

OREGON REFUSE & RECYCLING ASSOCIATION

Disaster Planning Session
Fall Convention 2008

Following are some links to more information about establishing disaster plans for your business, to share with your employees to help them prepare at home, as well as other practical information. This document is posted on ORRA's website as well: www.orra.net

Business-specific materials for preparing for disasters, including draft plans:
<http://www.ready.gov/business/index.html>

General preparedness with some great one page flyers on preparing for disasters:
<http://ocem.org/prepare/preparepage.htm>

Red Cross preparedness site:
http://www.redcross.org/services/prepare/0,1082,0_239_,00.html

Washington County's Pandemic Flu website – excellent information and materials:
http://www.co.washington.or.us/deptmts/hhs/comm_hlh/panflu/panflu_wcdhhs.htm

DVD to Teach "Coughing Safety":
<http://www.coughsafe.com/purchase.html> (site for the "Why Don't We Do it in Our Sleeves?" DVD)

FEMA's Debris Management brochure:
<http://www.pema.state.pa.us/pema/cwp/view.asp?a=198&q=275761>

Registering your company with FEMA as a debris removal contractor:
<http://www.fema.gov/business/contractor.shtm>

DEQ Fact Sheet on Winter Storm Emergencies and Disaster Management, approval for debris collection sites, specific agency contacts:
<http://www.deq.state.or.us/lq/pubs/factsheets/DisasterDebrisMgtfactsheet.pdf>

EPA's most recently updated "Planning for Disaster Debris" guide:
<http://www.epa.gov/epawaste/consERVE/rrr/imr/cdm/pubs/pnDD.pdf>